Dear Anurag Rai,

We hope you are doing well and are having a great time facilitating Google Cloud Study Jams on your campus! Please find the general updates about the campaign and participant progress report for your campus below.

Checklist for this week for the organizers :

Ensure to follow the checklist, to not fall behind in the campaign :

1. The Gen AI Arcade Game is now open for participants! The link to the game and code to access the game have been shared in the Enrolment Email.
2. Happening Today! Join the Train the Trainer session Today (22 Oct) at 6:30 PM IST.

- The above Google Meet is exclusively for Organizers.
- Participants can join the session through the YouTube link provided below and gain the full experience.

3. No recording will be made, so please ensure you attend to clarify any doubts on the course content.

Here is your progress report! 📄

Please find below the aggregate numbers to give you a quick overview of how participants from your campus are progressing and where you currently stand with the campaign milestones. This summary provides a high-level view of your chapter's overall performance.

For a deeper look into each individual participant's activity, progress, and detailed reports, please refer to the attached CSV file. This file contains all the specific data points you'll need to track registrations, skill badge completions, and other key metrics for your campus participants.

Metric	Value
No. of Correct Users Enrolled ✅	288
No. of participants with wrong profile URLs	0
Total number of participants completing all 19 Skill Badge	0
Total number of participants completing Arcade Game	0
Total Number of participants who completed both : all 19 skill badges + Arcade Game (Note: This is the count that will sum up for your overall milestone evaluation and recognition.)	0

See the progress for your milestones below!

Find the progress for your 3 tiers below. The faster the completions will get filled and the rewards for those will be unlocked.

General Updates & Reminders

Here's what you need to keep in mind as you continue your journey in the campaign:

- Skill badges deadline: Complete all skill badges by 19th November, 2025. Plan ahead, as no extensions will be available.
- Credits usage: You have 400 credits-use them wisely, as no additional top-ups will be provided.
- Lab completion: Finish the listed labs to earn your skill badges. Remember, there's a daily limit of 15 labs, so pace yourself to stay on track.
- Rewards & recognition: Be aware of the reward system and recognition process, as the program team will not handle disputes.

Encourage the participant to reach out to gdgocsupport@google.com in case :

- A participant has successfully enrolled for the campaign but didn't receive the enrolment email. Please validate their email address, public profile URL and check spam folder, before reaching out.
- A participant is unable to redeem the Google Cloud Skill Boost credits on their accounts.
- Participants completed any of the Skill badges, but their progress was not reflected on the profile dashboard.

As always, please feel free to ask any questions or queries by reaching out to our support team at gdgocsupport@google.com

All the best & happy facilitating,
The Google Cloud Study Jams Team
